It looks like I was able to convince her to hold off on her email campaign.

Richard and Joni, can you check on the status of ERS final payment to her of her late fees?

The sooner this is resolved the better for everyone.

Thanks,

Janice

Michelle,

I am putting this on hold for tonight out of respect to Janice Pearson, no other reason.

Every invoice I have sent since the 11/13/15, when no one wanted to respond, has had the late fees on it. Ms. Reinhold was told more than once today, both via email and phone conversation that the funds needed to be cut including the late fees.

Right now, I do not feel that I can trust the word the majority of people I have dealt with during the attempt to receive payment. I need to know when I will be receiving the late fees and I need that guarantee from someone with authority that don't have to have someone up the ladder to approve their decision or have to deal with someone can have what they say rejected by someone else.

I will wait 30 days for the late fees to be paid. Either we come to an agreement that I like or the email campaign will resume. This did not have to happen.

Cordially,

Kelley Roberson
